

PANODIA

2008/2009 COLLECTION

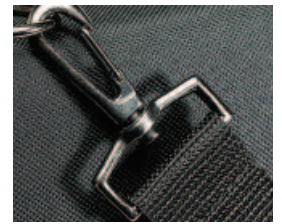

For more than 30 years, Panodia has made excellence in image presentation the driving goal. Their products fuse contemporary European styling with old-world craftsmanship and high quality materials to create presentation albums that are second to none.

For the image conscious and socially aware, these European designed and manufactured transportation and presentation albums are sure to make a good impression before they're even opened. Photographers, graphic designers, models or anyone whose business relies on presenting images that sell their work will appreciate the added presentation panache of Panodia's styling.

Original designs combine classic and modern styles for a look and feel that stands out from the crowd. That is what Panodia has prided itself on since opening its doors in 1975. Careful material selection, dedication to quality and solid design make these albums instant classics that wear well and have a timeless style.
